- (5) The Arado Plant area is believed to be the former Arado airfield, on which [redacted] an ammunition dump is said to be located. The present report indicates that a tank repair shop of the 63d Gds Tank Regt of the 10th Gds Tank Div in Brandenburg may be located there.
- (6) Probably the Kuersassier Kaserne, which was occupied by German units until the end of World War II. The installation was reported to have quartered artillery units in December 1949. The present report indicates that the barracks installation was heavily occupied by artillery components of the 6th Arty Div.
